

Per Diem Trainer Position Description

Company Description

Founded in 2004 in Philadelphia, PA The Ladipo Group, LLC is a minority owned and operated company. Over the years, we have created a solid reputation for providing exceptional psychotherapy services (individual, couples, and families) to Black and African-American communities.

We have grown to offer consulting services to companies and agencies about Cultural Competency and Trauma-Informed Care. We also provide community-based workshops, groups and professional development training for human service providers.

Position Description

The Ladipo Group is looking for dynamic trainers, who have experience with providing training to both small and large groups on topics including, but not limited to, motivational interviewing, trauma informed care grounded in the Sanctuary Model, vicarious trauma, burnout and self-care, and cultural competence in general and/or with LGBT populations. Trainers must be engaging, dynamic and ideally have some experience with effectively delivering training information as well as conceptualizing activities that help trainees reinforce and practice material they are learning.

Trainers report directly to the Director of Training.

Tasks & Responsibilities

The trainer is responsible for the following:

- Effectively delivering curriculum based training material
- Work with training team to develop new training content as needed

Ideal Candidate Skills, Characteristics, and Experience

- Articulate and engaging
- Highly dependable
- At least 5 years experience with training and/or higher education teaching
- Knowledge of behavioral theory
- Knowledge of trauma and the Sanctuary Model
- Experience with using technology in training
- Experience with curriculum development

- Some clinical counseling skills (Ideally an LSW, LCSW, LMFT, LPC, etc)
- Flexible enough schedule to conduct half or full day trainings with advance notice

Compensation

This is a per diem position. Trainers will be provided advance notice of training opportunities and will be assigned trainings according to availability and matched with subject matter. Trainers will receive $30-$50/hr. based on experience.

Benefits of Working as a Trainer at The Ladipo Group

- Ability to work with a growing minority owned and operated business
- You will be part of a dynamic training team
- A chance to grow and enhance your clinical and training skills
- The ability to enhance the skills of direct service providers, which will have a positive impact on client outcomes
- Competitive compensation rates

To apply for this position:

1. Send Resume to Training@TheLadipoGroup.com.
2. In Subject Line Enter: Per Diem Trainer Position
3. Save your resume as PDF file as FirstName_LastName_Resume_Month_Year For example Nina_Simone_Resume_March_2016
4. No phone calls please! Email us with any questions.

For more information on The Ladipo Group visit us online: www.TheLadipoGroup.com

March 2016