WWW.THELADIPOGROUP.COM

Tonya Ladipo, Licensed Clinical Social Worker, is the founder and CEO of The Ladipo Group. She has 25+ years of experience partnering with mission-driven organizations to enhance emotional intelligence and create psychologically safe workplaces where everyone can thrive.

Using her unique perspective as a clinician, Tonya understands the complexities of human behavior and what motivates people and organizations to change. She has a particular passion for understanding the influence of gender, race, sexuality, and intersectionality as it relates to creating psychologically safe and inclusive workplaces where people of all backgrounds can thrive and succeed.

Her philosophy, Knowledge is Good, Behavior is Better, underscores her approach to creating lasting behavior change for individuals and organizations.

As an engaging speaker on women's wellness, emotional intelligence, equity, diversity, and building inclusive workplace cultures, Tonya speaks to large audiences (1,000+) and more intimate gatherings.

Tonya has been honored to receive several awards, including Titan 100, Philadelphia Business Journal's Diversity in Business, and the Pioneer Award.

Tonya's keynote speeches and public speaking garner repeat invitations and high praise from clients such as Google, Black Enterprise, and Villanova University. She has been featured in The New York Times, NPR, The Philadelphia Inquirer, The Philadelphia Tribune, Essence, Black Enterprise, ABC, Fox, and NBC.
